Iowa Innovation Group Completes Prototyping Workshop

The 2022 Iowa Innovation Group (IIG) met in March for a Prototyping Workshop. The innovators started creating prototypes and will soon begin testing the ideas they've crafted to improve the credit union movement. We are excited for their progress and can't wait to hear about the ideas they have to improve the credit union movement. Learn more about the innovators here.

ICUL has partnered with Filene Research Institute since 2013 to offer IIG, which coaches emerging credit union leaders through Filene's "Method of Innovation" over seven months. IIG aims to develop future leaders of our credit union industry - equipping them with the abilities to evaluate industry insights, create innovative solutions and engage in a pioneering mindset.
